Date: 9/17/2009

Time: 1230

On September 17, 2009 at 10:43 am dispatch advised of a possible suicide attempt at 4385 Tabor Ridge RD in Warren township. Deputy Valdez along with K-9 Aron and Deputy Jones arrived on scene at 11:02 am and were informed that Lois Grandison had consumed a handful of pills. Lois was believed to have started walking in the woods behind the address and the home owner stated that there is approximately 100 acres and a pond located on the property. Deputies on scene immediately began searching the area for Lois. After searching the area K-9 Aron located Lois approximately a half mile away from the residence lying on the ground in a heavy wooded area. Lois was awake but not aware of her surroundings. Deputies escorted Lois to the squad and Smith ambulance transported her to Aultman hospital for evaluation.

Also on September 8, 2009 K-9 Aron located another female, Anissa Cargnel, after she had consumed an unknown amount of pills and left her residence. Deputies and Midvale PD arrived at a pond on Backwater RD SE in New Philadelphia. K-9 Aron located Anissa in a culvert under the railroad tracks and she was escorted to the squad. Smith ambulance transported her to Twin City hospital for evaluation.
