Drug Trafficking Indictment Served

A Tuscarawas County Grand Jury Indictment for two felony counts of Trafficking in Drugs was served on 26 year old Christopher L. Brinson of 527 North Broadway New Philadelphia.

Brinson became the focus of L.E.A.D Detectives last spring as information was received from sources that he was selling Heroin in the Tuscarawas County area.

Investigators were able to coordinate two undercover controlled buys of Heroin from Brinson in the New Philadelphia area resulting in the indictment.

Brinson also faces two additional new charges of Petty Theft and Passing Bad Checks that originated from an investigation conducted by Dover Police.

Brinson is currently serving a sentence in the Belmont Correctional Center for three counts of Forgery in Tuscarawas County as well as one count of Failure to Register as a Sex Offender in Stark County.

Brinson will remain in the Tuscarawas County Jail until his arraignment on all the current charges.
