Drug Trafficking Indictment Served In Mineral City

On Wednesday October 13, 2010 a Tuscarawas County Grand Jury Summons on Indictment was served on Clinton B. Long (18) at 8335 South High Street in Mineral City Ohio for three counts of Trafficking in Drugs. The charges consist of one fourth degree felony and two fifth degree felonies for sales of Oxycodone pills and Marijuana out of the residence.

The three count Indictment is the direct result of a joint investigation between the Tuscarawas County L.E.A.D. Task Force and the Carroll County Sheriff's Narcotics Unit.

Investigators were able to coordinate the controlled undercover drug buys from Long after receiving tips and information regarding alleged illegal trafficking at the Mineral City residence.

Clinton B. Long was served the Summons on Indictment and released with a date for Arraignment in Tuscarawas County Common Pleas Court set for November 16, 2010.
