Drug Trafficking Indictment Served

On Thursday January 14, 2010 Julie A. Jinks was served a Tuscarawas County Grand Jury Indictment for one third degree felony count of Trafficking in Drugs as the result of an undercover investigation that began in the summer of 2009.

Detectives received information from both Dennison and Uhrichsville Police regarding possible illegal drug activity that Jinks may have been involved in around the Twin Cities and were able to coordinate a controlled undercover buy of crack cocaine from Jinks at her former residence located at 417 North Third Street in Dennison. The residence is located within 1000 feet of Claymont Junior High in the village.

Jinks is currently serving a sentence for a recent parole violation and was returned to the Tuscarawas County Justice Center to be served with the indictment.
