Deputy Chris Anderson of the Tuscarawas County Sheriff's Office is requesting assistance in trying to identify a female that reportedly was involved in the theft and use of a credit card. On 12-31-2009 Brian and Lindsey Preston filed a complaint at the Sheriff's Office advising of a theft of their credit card and multiple transactions taking place on their account. Deputy Anderson checked the locations where the credit card was used and obtained video of a female using the card. The transactions took place mostly in the Canton area and a few took place in Tuscarawas County. The same female is being sought by Canton police department pertaining to the theft and use of another stolen credit card that occurred in their city. Deputy Anderson is requesting that if anyone can identify the female to contact the Sheriff's Office at (330) 339-2000. Attached is the photo of the female that is being sought in the case.
